Source: Total Population Register 2002. Data refer to 31-12-2002. The table includes children registered in Sweden on 31-12-2002, both those living at home and those not. Foreign-born adopted children are not included. The countries named here are where at least 2 500 children in Sweden are born or where over 10 000 mothers and fathers come from. Presentation by country of birth is carried out according to current borders. If a country has been divided up, e.g. Yugoslavia, after the person has moved to Sweden, it has not been possible to divide them by the new divisions.

The table includes children registered in Sweden on 31-12-2002, both those living at home and those not. Foreign-born adopted children are not included.

The countries mentioned are those where at least 2 500 children in Sweden were born or at least 10 000 children's mothers come from. Presentation by country of birth is carried out according to today's borders. If a country has been divided up, e.g. Yugoslavia, after the person moved to Sweden, it has not been possible to divide them by the new divisions.
